AINN'S INTERNATIONAL DAY ASSEMBLY: A VIRTUAL SUCCESS!

On Thursday, April 30th, AINN held its second online monthly assembly. This time around, we celebrated the 31 nationalities that make our school truly international! Community members attended dressed in traditional attire along with their flags representing their countries. In addition, Ms. Cookie's class shared a musical performance, Ms. Basma shared student workouts, and April birthdays were recognized!

UPCOMING PARENT-TEACHER CONFERENCES: We will hold Parent-Teacher conferences over Zoom between May 5th and May 14th. Elementary school teachers will be in contact to arrange a date and time that works for parents. Middle and High School parents should email teachers to arrange times. You can also contact Ms. Aicha at aicha.fall@ainnmauritania.com so she can help arrange meetings for you. It is important that parents and teachers have this time together to discuss your child's progress throughout the year. Translators will be provided for families that need them.

AISN KEEPS THE LEARNING FLOWING ONLINE!

UPCOMING MAY ADVANCED PLACEMENT (AP) TESTS: AP Exams are college level tests administered in May for specific academic subject areas through the College Board. Some of our seniors have elected to take these tests in the following subjects: Calculus, Language and Composition, Comparative Government and Politics, and Environmental Science. A special shout out to our seniors who are challenging themselves with these high-stake assessments. Good Luck!

END OF THE SCHOOL YEAR IN SIGHT! AISN has approximately 2 more weeks of school remaining in the 2019-2020 school year. Remember to stay focused, stay rested, stay healthy, and stay on top of your responsibilities. We are on the homestretch! Don't give up and give it your best shot all the way to the end of class.
